

WORKSHOPS REPORT 2019-20

Professional development training can help teachers to become better at planning their time and staying organized. This ultimately makes teachers more efficient and gives them extra time to focus on students rather than the paperwork. Students expect teachers to be subject matter experts for the topics they teach.

A workshop is a great way for someone to learn about a particular subject, learn new projects, and methods in order to better you. Attending workshops can help TEACHERS achieve success in their academic environment by putting these skills into practice.

Effective teacher learning and professional development is important for student achievement. Teacher learning is a continuous process that promote teachers' teaching skills, master new knowledge, develop new proficiency, which in turn, help improve students' learning.

It also seeks to inform understanding of the complexity and richness of good teaching and learning. ... Every day, every year, they meet students and pupils with ever-evolving learning needs. They know they need to continue to learn as professionals so that they can empower students to be the best learners they can.

These workshops focus on practical, concrete strategies for common teaching tasks, challenges, and opportunities. ... Teaching Workshops are typically a mix of presentation, large group discussion, small group activities, and times for individual reflection.

Attending a workshop has numerous benefits, including improving communication skills, gaining expert knowledge, networking with others and renewing motivation and confidence.

In our school we get opportunities for teachers to attend the workshops conducted by the publishers of various books. Teachers utilize the opportunities to improve their knowledge and skills and try to use that in classroom situations.
